

EURO VOL NET

EUROPEAN
VOLUNTEERING
NETWORK

CERTIFICATE

JOUĐ (ESTONIAN SPORTS ASSOCIATION)

for being partner in the EuroVolNet project in the period December 2010 – June 2012
and for developing volunteering in sport in Europe.

Competences and skills that EuroVolNet partner has acquired:

- a knowledge base in volunteering in sport
- a knowledge how to encourage and support national activities in volunteering in sport and actively promote the choice of volunteering in sport
- material from local / national / international initiatives
- greater understanding of what other organizations are doing that may be different or complementary to own work in the field »promotion of volunteering in sport«
- a knowledge base of organization, management and quality assurance of promotion of volunteering in sport
- preparation of future actions in promotion of volunteering in Europe
- a knowledge of good examples to be used in own organization following EuroVolNet dimensions:
 - Recruitment of volunteers
 - Education and training for the target group
 - Retention of volunteers on practical
 - Recognition of volunteers on public level
 - Influence or contribute to laws, government policies or recommendations on volunteering
 - Promotion of the social and economical value of volunteering
 - Inclusion of disadvantaged or special target groups
 - Innovative partnerships and funding models

ISCA President
Mogens Kirkeby